

Dream

I dream that one-day
Equality would smile upon this great land
Hate would be in short supply
Kindness and respect would be imbedded in the souls of everyone
One would not be judged by the color of their skin
I dream that one-day we would not be judged because of our Significant-other
Not be judged and criticized because of our faith or our past
I pray that one-day the world would be free of sickness and war
I'm hopeful one-day there will be an end to segregation and hate
I long that one-day we all find love and peace
I dream that people would stop being pretentious
And
Be more courageous
I pray that one and all would be thankful for our great leaders
I dream when I'm asleep
I dream when I'm awake
I dream, I hope, I pray
